§2 Grouping and seeding

The EFAF European Junior Championships final round will be a system of Final-six. According to the confirmations of participation EFAF Board of Directors (EFAF BoD) will seed the teams for qualification games with the basis being previous results from European Junior Championships as well as regional and technical aspects.

§3 Qualification round

The EFAF BoD will determine (after the entry fees have been paid) the form and teams of qualification tournament play in October 2011 based on hosting applications received as well as areal and technical aspects. Each participating federation could be required to play one qualification tournament and one qualification game.

After the first qualification phase, in second phase the hosting federations will have until November 30, 2011 to confirm date, time and venue of the game.

The qualification phase/ games/ tournaments have to be played from May 1st 2012 – September 15th 2012 and second phase games have to be played from March 1st 2013 – May 31st 2013, unless in the second phase another date is mutually agreed upon by the participating federations as well as the EJCTC.

In qualification phase/ games/ t tournaments the details for accommodation options as well as other conditions will be given latest February 1st, 2012 to the participating federations and the EJCTC by the hosting federation. Travel to the hosting country and back home will be the responsibility of the respective federation. The hosting federation is responsible for the general organisation of the qualification game and local transportations, but each participant is responsible of their own accommodation and lodging costs.

Each participating federation will be required to pay for the transport of three game officials determined by EFAF officiating committee to the qualification rounds.

§4 Championship round

The final six pooling depends on which teams win the qualification games and the seeding. The final championship groups will be determined after the qualification games are completed. This must not be later than June 10th, 2013.

All teams participating in final-six tournament will be charged an additional tournament fee (maximum 10.000,00 Euros, including deposit) to cover some expenses for the tournament host. Final amount will be determined by EFAF BoD by May 1st, 2013. The deposit of 2.000,00 Euros will be credited towards this fee for teams qualified for final tournament.

All teams travelling to the hosting country are responsible for the transport of their team to the site of the championships and home again. Ground transportation (teams to practice, games and other planned events) once at the championships site and food and lodging will be covered by the LOC. Each team will only be allowed to bring 45 players and 10 coaches/others. If a federation wants to bring more coaches/others it must cover such expenses.

The details for travel and accommodation as well other conditions will be given after the qualification round in May /June 2013 by the LOC to all the six teams travelling to the Finals and to the EJCTC.

Each participating federation will be required to pay for the transport of game officials determined by EFAF Officiating committee to the championships from their respective country.

The host has to pay for travel costs and one night accommodation of two to four neutral referees assigned by EFAF.

§5 Tie breakers

In all qualification games there has to be a winner and the game may not end as tied. If the score is equal after the normal game time, the NCAA tie-breaker rules will be used to break a tie.

In the final tournament the group games can end in a tie.

The winners of the championship pool will be decided in the following way:

- head to head win-loss difference
- head to head net points
- net points overall
- most touchdowns scored
- coin toss
